The Special Olympics USA Games, which is hosted every four years, will mark the largest humanitarian event in Florida's history. The event will unite more than 5,500 athletes and coaches from all 50 states and the Caribbean. Over 10,000 volunteers will fill more than 20,000 volunteer shifts during the week. It is anticipated that over 125,000 families, friends and spectators will witness inspiring athletic accomplishments in 19 Olympic-style team and individual sports and more than 30 events at world-class venues across Orlando, centered at ESPN Wide World of Sports at Walt Disney World Resort.

Spring/Summer sports athletes, Unified Partners and coaches were selected for Team Pennsylvania based on whether they won a gold medal in their division in the past three years at Summer Games, successfully participated in an overnight State level event, and if they actively participated in at least one Commit to Fit activity during the pandemic. Commit to Fit activities include at-home sports specific training, in-person sports specific training, and participation in the Fitness Heptathlon (seven different fitness exercises) and the Stride or Move Fitness Challenges (distance and exercise based activities) as an individual and/or unified pair.

Team Pennsylvania coaches had to go through an application process where they selected the sport that they wished to coach and were then interviewed by Team Pennsylvania staff before being chosen from a pool of over 30 applicants.

More than 50 athletes have been selected to represent Team Pennsylvania in athletics, basketball, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, softball, swimming and tennis. Additional Team Pennsylvania selections will take place throughout the summer and after SOPA's Fall Festival competition in November.

"We are extremely proud of all of the athletes who have been selected to represent Team Pennsylvania at the 2022 USA Games," said Mike Ermer, Team PA Head of Delegation. "We know how hard these athletes have worked to receive the chance to compete nationally and display their remarkable abilities to the world. We are excited to see all that they accomplish and can't wait to celebrate their dedication and perseverance."
